Choose An Industry Expert

When considering working with a Professional Employer Organization (PEO), it is important to choose a partner that understands your business. Vested HR is uniquely positioned to do just that.

The company was founded by a business owner that was unsatisfied with his options in the PEO marketplace. Given his experience owning several businesses, he knew there had to be a better way, and thus, Vested HR was born out of his desire to offer a better product, at a better price.

Since its' founding, Vested HR has hired top talent in the PEO industry and continuously invests in obtaining industry certifications, technology, and security to stay on top of the ever-changing HR world. This allows us to provide our clients and their valued employees with the best solutions at the best price.

We understand your business and partner with you to define your needs and goals so we can build a customized solution that makes sense for your budget and your people.
